INNOVATION FORM

This form is an attachment to the thesis. By completing and submitting this “Innovation Form” to the CS Library, we will be able to do an initial evaluation and tagging of the potential inventions generated by the thesis. This will also help us build the database of theses in the College of Science.

Only the thesis with an “I” classification is required to answer the form.

All thesis collected will be classified as

- I: has patentable or registrable invention or creation
